Kaceys To Meet Singers In Deciding Game

All arrangements have been completed and everything is setforths third and deciding clash between the Singers of Bridgeport and the local Kacers, to be staged tomorrow atternoon at the Fair Grounds. This meeting has attracted the interest of the Connecticut sporting public as has no other this assent in assumed as the SELECTER BY COMMITTEE.

front. For the Singers Pote Wilson, the crafty portsider, will pitch and after a week of rest should enter the game in the best of condition. Whether or not his best is sufficient to quell the rampant Kaceys is yet to he seen. Mosher will do the receiving and he is a worthy haftery mate of the great Pete. First hase will be covered by Jack McCarthy, with his brother Jim at Station No. 2. Klinger takes mird and Casseriy short atop. The outfield is composed of Reilly Crievey and Hayes, the last mentioned was formerly a Kacey player, This lineup is the Singers best, and is the one which has subdued nearly every team they have faced this year.

In Hurb Cansvan the locals have without doubt the best semi-pro pitcher in the state. Although but a youngster he already has had big league experience playing one season with the Boston Braves and performing very creditably. He also pitched for Lawrence in the Eastern League at the time when Denny Murphy of Taftiville was catching.
